My Hero Academia Vol 10: All For One is the tenth volume in the popular manga series My Hero Academia. The volume was written and illustrated by Kohei Horikoshi, and was published in Japan on February 2, 2017. The English translation was published by Viz Media on August 8, 2017.

The volume begins with a recap of the previous volume, in which the heroes of Class 1-A fought against the villainous Tomura Shigaraki. The battle ended with Shigaraki's defeat, but not before he managed to escape. The heroes are now on high alert, knowing that Shigaraki is still at large and that he is likely to return for revenge.

The volume then cuts to the present day, where the heroes are preparing for the upcoming Sports Festival. The Sports Festival is a major event in the world of My Hero Academia, and it is a chance for the students to showcase their abilities and compete for glory. The heroes are all determined to do their best, but they know that they will have to face some tough competition.

The Sports Festival begins with a series of preliminary rounds, which are designed to narrow down the field of competitors. The heroes all perform well in the preliminaries, and they all advance to the final round. The final round is a battle royale, in which the heroes must fight each other until only one is left standing.

The battle royale is a brutal affair, and the heroes all fight valiantly. However, in the end, it is Izuku Midoriya who emerges victorious. Midoriya's victory is a major upset, but it is also a testament to his hard work and determination. Midoriya has proven himself to be a true hero, and he is now ready to face any challenge that comes his way.

My Hero Academia Vol 10: All For One is an action-packed volume that pits the heroes of Class 1-A against the villainous All For One. With stunning artwork and an engaging story, this volume is a must-read for fans of the series.
