Plot Summary

My Hero Academia Vol 23: Our Brawl picks up where the previous volume left off, with Class 1-A preparing for their upcoming Provisional Hero License Exam. As they train and refine their Quirks, rivalries and insecurities come to the surface, testing their bonds and determination.

Izuku Midoriya, the protagonist of the series, grapples with the overwhelming power of his Quirk, One For All. Haunted by the legacy of All Might, he struggles to find his own path and prove himself as a worthy successor. Meanwhile, Katsuki Bakugo, Midoriya's childhood friend and rival, remains driven by his competitive nature and desire to surpass All Might.

As the exam approaches, Class 1-A is divided into teams and sent to different locations to face off against each other in mock battles. These battles serve as a proving ground for their abilities and teamwork, but they also expose their weaknesses and vulnerabilities.

Throughout Volume 23, readers witness the growth and development of various characters. Shoto Todoroki confronts his complicated family history and his own inner turmoil. Eijiro Kirishima overcomes his self-doubt and discovers the true strength of his Quirk, Red Riot. Denki Kaminari and Mina Ashido showcase their unique abilities and contribute to the success of their team.

The volume culminates in an intense and emotional battle between Team Midoriya and Team Bakugo. As the rivals clash, their determination and resolve are put to the ultimate test. The outcome of the battle not only determines their performance in the exam but also has profound implications for their personal journeys and the future of Class 1-A.

Characters

My Hero Academia Vol 23: Our Brawl features a diverse and compelling cast of characters, each with their own unique personalities, motivations, and Quirks.

- Izuku Midoriya (Deku): The main protagonist of the series, Midoriya is a determined and selfless boy who inherits the powerful Quirk, One

For All. Despite facing numerous challenges, he remains steadfast in his dream of becoming a hero.

- Katsuki Bakugo (Kacchan): Midoriya's childhood friend and rival, Bakugo is a hot-headed and competitive individual. With his explosive Quirk, he aims to become the greatest hero and surpass All Might.
- Shoto Todoroki: The son of the infamous Endeavor, Todoroki possesses a combination of fire and ice Quirks. Haunted by his past, he struggles to reconcile his conflicting emotions and find his own identity.
- Eijiro Kirishima (Red Riot): A loyal and enthusiastic member of Class 1-A, Kirishima is known for his hardening Quirk. Despite his initial insecurities, he develops a strong sense of determination and unbreakable spirit.
- Denki Kaminari (Chargebolt): A lively and extroverted student, Kaminari possesses an electric Quirk that can short-circuit his own brain. Despite his eccentricities, he remains a valuable member of his team.
- Mina Ashido (Pinky): A cheerful and outgoing girl, Ashido has an acid-based Quirk that allows her to dissolve objects and create slippery surfaces. Her positive attitude and quick wit contribute to the team's success.
- Hitoshi Shinso: A mysterious and introspective student from Class 1-C, Shinso has a Quirk that allows him to brainwash others. Despite his troubled past, he seeks to use his abilities for good.

Themes

My Hero Academia Vol 23: Our Brawl explores a variety of themes that resonate with readers of all ages.

- The Power of Determination: Throughout the volume, characters like Midoriya, Bakugo, and Kirishima demonstrate the incredible power of determination and perseverance. They face their fears, overcome their limitations, and achieve their goals through sheer willpower and dedication.
- The Importance of Teamwork: The Provisional Hero License Exam emphasizes the crucial role of teamwork and cooperation. Students learn to rely on each other, combine their Quirks, and support one another in order to succeed in challenging situations.
- Overcoming Inner Struggles: Many characters in Volume 23 grapple with their own inner struggles and complexities. Midoriya battles with self-doubt and the weight of his inherited power. Todoroki confronts his traumatic childhood and the expectations placed upon him. Shinso seeks to redeem himself from his past mistakes.
- The Nature of Heroism: The battles and interactions in Volume 23 question the true nature of heroism. What defines a hero? Is it power, glory, or the selfless desire to help others?

Artwork

Kohei Horikoshi's artwork in My Hero Academia Vol 23: Our Brawl is simply stunning. His dynamic and expressive art style brings the characters and battles to life with incredible detail and energy.
